

35 Taylor St, Kurrimine Beach

UNDER CONTRACT

This large two storey beach house is value for money. Solidly constructed of block on the lower level with a suspended concrete slab for the upper level floor, it is built to stand up to a good blow.

Downstairs there are two bedrooms , bathroom , an office and laundry ,adjoining the kitchen/bar and living area. The large Tasmanian oak staircase leading upstairs is a credit to the builder.

Upstairs are two bedrooms and a bathroom, the main has an ensuite and walk in robe. There are verandahs upstairs on the west and north sides and bedrooms open on to these to catch the breeze.

In the yard there is a two bay concrete shed with a lean-to providing plenty of space for the toys and a neat workshop.

This property has a lot to offer with views of the bushland to the rear and the well maintained yard with room to expand the entertaining area or bigger shed. This is one to inspect if you think the photos give a hint of what you are looking for.

Overall this property represents good buying at this price. If this is the type of property you are looking for please don't hesitate to give me a call.
