WHAT MORE DO YOU NEED

A short stroll to the beach, not far from service station/ post office/store, hotel and two boat ramps, this concrete block home would make a perfect getaway or a base for you to call home when you are off travelling in your RV.

The modern kitchen and bathroom is easy care and has what you need. Electricity costs are minimised with a solar system. The high ceilings give a feeling of airiness and keeps it cool. There is room for a 6 metre boat as well as an area for the toys all locked up.

Just imagine relaxing on the patio looking out over the lawn sipping on a wine or relaxing with the kids on the seats providing a lovely spot to sit in the late afternoon after day cruising around the islands or doing a spot of fishing.

Kurrimine Beach is a quiet beachside village with offshore islands and close in reefs to explore. It is situated midway between Cairns and Townsville, just north of Mission Beach and Dunk Island.
